Student Loan Repayments for FY16

This staff bulletin serves as official notice that the FY16 application window for the Student Loan Repayment Program (SLRP) is now open. Please read through this announcement carefully as it provides important information and links for applying. The SLRP serves as a retention incentive for HUD employees who are considering leaving the Department to work outside the Federal government. The SLRP is designed to retain highly, or uniquely qualified employees in mission critical positions and/or positions that would otherwise be difficult to fill. For purposes of this program, mission critical positions are considered vital to the day-to-day operations, success of the Program Office and overall success of the Department.

President, Council 222 of HUD Locals
