AFGE PIV CARD AGREEMENT

Many employees have expressed concern over management's sudden implementation of new PIV card log-in requirements. The Council was able to get to the bargaining table this week with management, led by a truly extraordinary bargaining team - Sal Viola (Chief Negotiator), Doug Finer (St. Louis), Michael Clyburn (Seattle), Antonio Carraway (Headquarters) and Victor Oluwole (New York). This AFGE team is responsible for a comprehensive agreement with management that provides significant protections for both telework and reasonable accommodations. Notably, the Agency is responsible for providing appropriate equipment to teleworkers for remote log-in, and teleworkers may continue to log in remotely using their user ID and password if such equipment has not been provided. In addition, all current reasonable accommodations remain in place. For a complete text of the agreement, click here.
